

All things to all (1Cor 22)

Sisters of St. Paul de Chartres

1696

France

Levesvill

was a very poor country farm in France

The Levesville Church

Inside of the Church

Father Louis Chauvet was the Parish Priest of the Levesville village.

He longed to raise the spirit and spiritual life of the villagers

He loved very much the children !

He needed - who were willing to work for God to teach those poor and ignorant children and villagers.

There was in the village , a very pious lady

Marie Anne de Tilly

有一天...

妳們要遵守共同的生活原則，這是我要求妳們都穿著白帽灰裙的原因。瑪利米素將會是「學校的女兒修會」的校長，迪瑪利安娜會從旁協助她。

Father Chauvet invited Marie-Anne de Tilly to be the teacher to teach the children and villagers

The first house of the sisters was a very simple poor house.

The first class-room

They prayed together and went out to visit the poor and the sick. But their works were not easy. They faced a lot of difficulties.

Sisters taught the children in this small underground room.

They supported their own livelihood by knitting

Marie Anne Tilly taught the young people with all her heart , trusting fully on the help of God.

The way Marie Anne Tilly offered herself to God was strongly opposed by her family. She was thus turned out of her own people—away from her home.

The sisters entrusted all their difficulties to God

Many young girls began to love the way of life of the Sisters, their prayer - life, the enthusiasm to help the needy and their together a life of love.

As their membership increased, they moved to the town of Chartres.

The Cathedral Chartres

The bishop of Chartres

The Bishop of Chartres named them “The Congregation of the Sisters of St. Paul de Chartres, aiming at following the spirit of St. Paul.

The Sisters continued their missionary work in different parts of the world. So here you see how this Congregation spread out to different parts of the world.

The Sisters do not forget the teaching of Marie Anne Tilly and Father Chauvet. They strictly keep the spirit these two people.

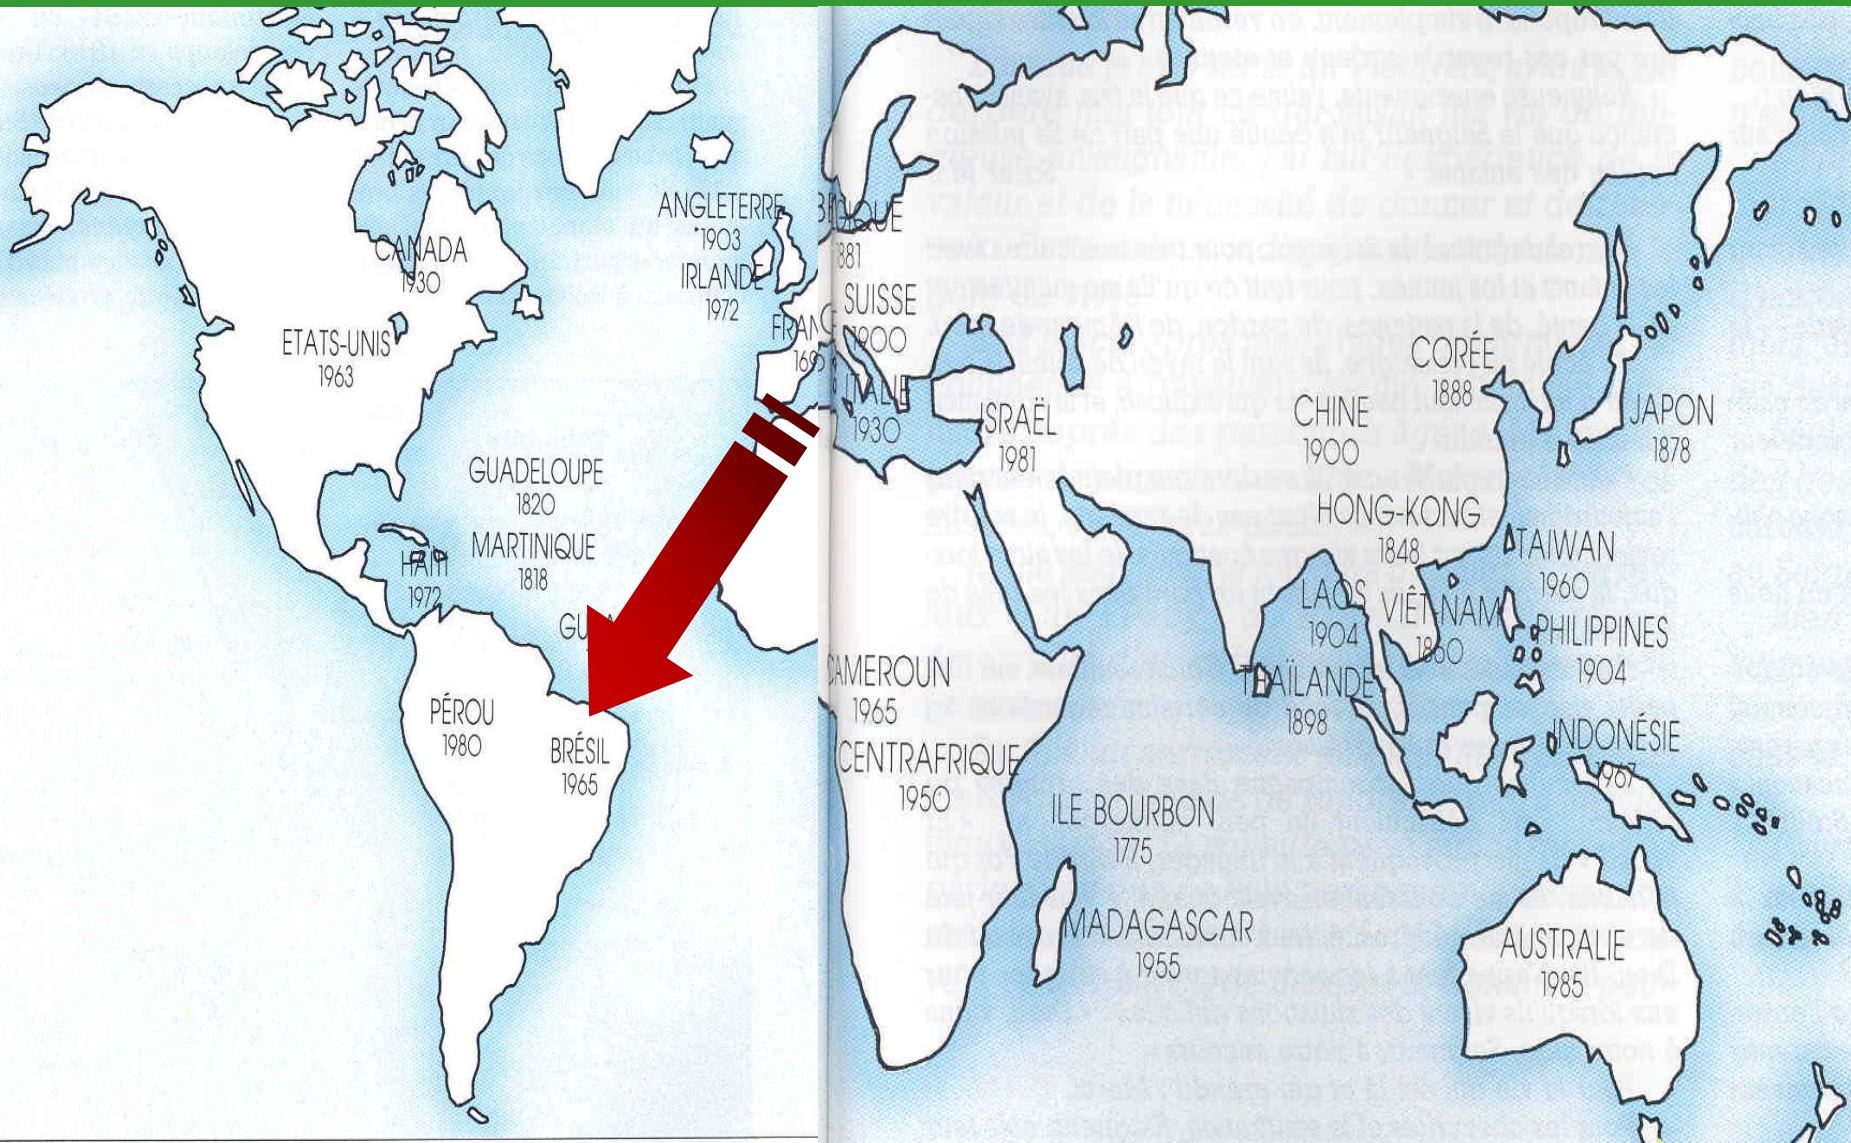

DISTRIBUTION DE PAIN AUX PAUVRES
à l'Hospice de Saint-Brice-les-Chartres

Sisters did their best to adapt themselves to different environments, helping all people who need their help. They are, up to now, what they call "All to All"

In 1727 , the sisters began spreading out, outside France for their mission.

First they went to South America

And there, the sisters looked after the wounded soldiers and prisoners.

*In 1848, the Sisters were invited to work for Hong Kong
by Bishop Augustin Forcade.*

Four French sisters arrived at Hong Kong after travelling for four months by boat. From there, sister went out to other countries in Asia.

*They starting them the school, providing education
for the needy people*

The first missionary works of the sisters were to take care of the unwanted babies.
